Message from the President

I am proud to present CDETNO 2015-2016 Annual Report. Once again, the team has demonstrated professionalism, innovation, and dynamism to reach our goals and help NWT's economy.

Through its actions: support to its members, to NWT entrepreneurs and investors, recruitment of skilled labour, support for job seekers and newcomers and the representation of the NWT French tourism, CDETNO is a reference in economic development in the NWT.

One of the main activities last year was the publication and presentation of the NWT Mining Industry Value Chain Study. Regarding recruitment, we have exceeded our objectives by taking part in ten job fairs. With 193 participants attending the two editions, our Employment Cafe was very successful. Our agents promoted the Northwest Territories across the country and internationally through numerous tourism trade shows.

I would like to thank CDETNO's team for its hard work and a job well-done. Thanks to my fellow directors for your time. Merçi Alain, Didier, Michel et Fred.

Jean-François Pitre

Message from the Executive Director

In the Annual Report, you will find the sum of our activities in entrepreneurship, investment attraction, recruitment, employability, immigration and tourism for the period covering April 2015 to March 2016.

Our last fiscal year was marked by the relocation of our offices. This change allowed us to consolidate our integrated services, merging the NWT Career Centre with CDETNO, creating a recruitment and employment centre for all Northerners. It also gave us the opportunity to strengthen relationships with some of our partners while providing easy access to other organizations and businesses to discover CDETNO's services.

Throughout the year we continued to disseminate information on the NWT labour market, tourist attractions, and the investment opportunities. Despite the geographic distance between the main French-speaking markets and the NWT, our constant efforts to promote the opportunities of the North helped increase the awareness for job seekers, tourists and investors, alike.

Finally, I would like to thank all of our members that took part in our activities. Thank you to our funders for your confidence, special thanks to our board members for their time and commitment and last but not least, to CDETNO's team that worked tirelessly to support the economic development of the NWT.
